Croner-i Corporate Tax

Dealing with tax for corporate entities requires the right expertise, and there's no better expert than the team behind Croner-i. Croner-i Corporate Tax offers an online library of resources, designed for those who work with corporate and business taxes – both UK and international. For in-house tax departments, our service gives you all the information you need to report for and advise your company.

Three packages are available with content to suit you, from tax planning guidance and expert commentary, to global VAT libraries and international tax treaties. All are fully searchable, with the ability to add your own bookmarks, highlights, and notes.

All in one place

Get all the resources you need in a single, comprehensive online portal. Login to Croner-i and you'll see everything from legislation and cases to transactional and in-depth tax commentary, interactive tools, and more, fully indexed and easy to find. Whether it's tax, or even HR or health and safety guidance you need, it's all just a click away.

Up-to-date expertise

Every guide, commentary, and resource in Croner-i is kept fully up-to-date with the latest legislation and standards. You can be assured that the information you're reading is correct and relevant every time. Plus, with our CPD tracker, you can count your reading towards your CPD.

Designed for business

Our Corporate Tax packages provide just the resources you need for dealing with tax. That includes resources such as full companies legislation, a global transfer pricing library, and our complete Red, Green, and Purple Legislation archives.

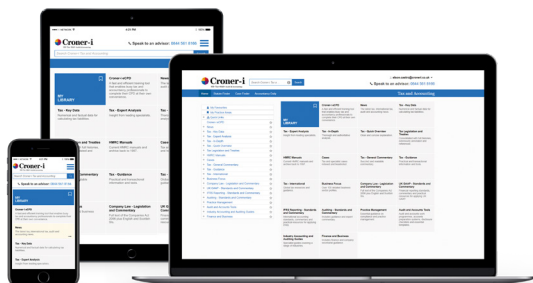

Give better advice – faster

With all the source materials and commentary right at your fingertips – along with the search function and personalised annotations system – finding, interpreting, and using information is a breeze. That means less time finding resources, and more time advising and putting plans into action.
